

FORENSIC REPORT

TO: Mr. John Patrick, Chief Inspector, Los Angeles police department, in charge of homicide of Mr. Robin Williams.

FROM: Forensic science and Toxicology department of San Francisco university.

SUBJECT: Forensic report of test results of samples collected from the crime scene.

DATE: 15th January 2004

This report gives the forensic analysis of the clues/ evidence/ items found at the crime scene.

1. One (1) black colored blazer found on the bed.
2. One (1) white colored shirt found on the dead body.
3. One (1) black colored formal pant found on the dead body.
5. Broken pieces of mirror which had dried blood stains of an unidentified person.
6. Broken lens pieces were found on the ground.
7. A brown table had following tables on it:
 1. One watch.
 2. A Nokia keypad phone (user not identified).
 3. An empty water glass.
8. A map of Los Angeles which contains many marked spots was found on the table.
9. The two parts of broken trophy were lying on the ground.
10. No finger prints were found except that of victim's.
11. Partially eaten roasted chicken is found.